1981 GRADUATE ECHOES CHURCHILL'S ADVICE "NEVER GIVE UP"

By Scott Smith '81, Student Senate President

"Never... Never... Never... NEVER... NEVER GIVE UP!"

These words were the sum total of a commencement address given by Sir Winston Churchill at his alma mater, Harrow Boy's School, in England. If I had the renown of Winston Churchill, I might also have the nerve to make a speech like that and sit down. As it is, I must qualify my remarks.

What do I mean when I say, "Never give up"? After all, as Christians, we don't have to depend entirely upon our own courage, determination, and intestinal fortitude to see us through the trying times in life. In Christ, we have an Ultimate Source of strength, peace, and hope to help us through all of life's hardships. Nevertheless, we all have our struggles, those problem areas in each of our lives that on occasion seem almost invincible. I am sure that we have all confronted obstacles that appeared so formidable, that the only possible solution (we might think at the time) is to quit . . . , to throw in the towel.

For a student, this obstacle might be finishing school. For a graduate, it may be facing the future. For a member of the faculty or staff, it could be to continue in your job. Maybe the biggest trial some of you parents will face is to put up with us graduates as we return home. Whatever your situation, never give up.

If anyone here is ready to give in to any problem in your life, to pull out a white flag and admit defeat, then this day should be a day of resignation. IT IS NOT! Today is a day of commencement—a new beginning. May I contend that this new beginning applies not only to us graduates as we seek the paths that God would have us walk, but that it applies to all of us. For some, the new beginning might be to develop new attitudes as we tread upon old and familiar paths.

To Faculty and Staff

The first party that I address this morning is the group at Bryan that does the most work for the least recognition—the faculty and staff. For the faculty, I know that it must be hard, putting up with us students, often in overcrowded conditions and with heavy teaching schedules. Many of you do all this and seek to further your own education at the same time. In spite of the many hardships, never give up. For it is as you seek a greater understanding of your specialized area, and a constant improvement in your teaching ability, that Bryan will continue to offer the student, as it has for fifty years, a top-quality education in almost every academic discipline.

For the staff, some of you who toil constantly in hidden offices, having little contact with the students, it must be easy to grow weary typing, filing, cleaning, and doing all those things to make Bryan run so smoothly and effectively. You may find this hard to believe, but we do notice your work, and we do appreciate it. Even when we are too bogged down in college life to express our gratitude, never give up, for God is always watching; and He desires and deserves a quality that is not dependent on prominent visibility.

For all the faculty and staff, one of the things we have valued most in our years at Bryan is your availability to us, and your concern for each of us—not as numbers—but as divinely created beings. I know it is often hard to make time for a student, but never give up, for it is well worth your time. The Bible says it better than I ever could, in I Corinthians 15:58; "Therefore my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord."

To Administrators and Trustees

I would next like to say a word to Dr. Mercer and the administration and to the trustees of Bryan College. I have served for the last two years as President of the student body here at Bryan, and it has been a tremendous privilege to sit in meetings with these great men of God. I appreciate their intense desire that Bryan remain true to its original purposes to keep Christ Above All and to accomplish the total development of each student for God's glory. These fifty years have not been easy. Getting its start virtually in the midst of the Great Depression, Bryan has withstood the tests of a major world war, the Korean conflict and Vietnam, and an almost-national uprising of college students during the sixties, followed by the period of apathy which characterized the seventies. These trying years have taken their toll, and many colleges that once called themselves "Christian" have fallen by the wayside. But Bryan has stood firm and faithful to the One who is our primary goal. As we move into this new decade of the eighties, the prospects look bright in the areas of enrollment, expansion, and overall growth, but the trials will also be there. As these trials come, I challenge you, administrators and trustees of Bryan College, never give up in keeping Christ above all at Bryan, and in staying true to God's infallible word, as in the past fifty years.

To Fellow Students

My words to the underclassmen are brief. Never give up, you'll get here someday, even though it sometimes seems impossible. I personally have rejoiced many times that when my mother sent me off to college as an eager, conquer-the-world freshman, she didn't send any towels with me. There were several times in my college experience, as I faced seemingly insurmountable trials, that if I had only had a towel, I would have thrown it in. Never give up.

To Parents

For you parents, as we receive our diplomas today, we are perhaps the strongest evidence of your persistence and determination. How numerous are the times we have caused you grief, the times we have let you down, and the times when you must have felt like giving up. Yet it was from my parents, as it was for most of the seniors, that I learned the meaning of perseverance and determination, that I learned to trust wholly in God and to be content with whatever He chooses to give us. More importantly, it was through my parents, during my formative years, that I developed my personal concept of God, and I learned that He, like my parents, would always consider me His son, whether I was a president or a prisoner. Dear parents, never give up on us. We still need you.

To Classmates

Finally, I address the seniors. Many of you are among my best friends, and I pray that we always maintain that friendship. When we came to Bryan, we all had basically the same goals. For the last four years, we have labored together, sharing one another's trials, and sharing one another's joys. Now we are about to separate—each going his own way—and many of us may never cross paths again. We will carry on the world-wide tradition of the Bryan College alumnus, with many of us in full-time Christian service as pastors or missionaries, and many serving faithfully as teachers or businessmen.

The diploma that we receive today will tell the world that we have crossed the threshold of our lives. But we must never let it tell us that we have come as far as we can come. It does not signify that many lessons we have not yet learned are now unlearnable, or that many unattained goals are now unattainable. God's work in our lives is limited only to the extent that we limit it. Let us seek to draw constantly closer to Him and to be used of Him in any way that He desires to use us. In this way, we can change our country: we can change our world. Never give up on God. He never gives up on us.

As I started by quoting the great Winston Churchill, so shall I conclude. "This is not the end," he said, "It is not even the beginning of the end. But it is perhaps the end of the beginning."*

Thank you.

ALUMNI GLEANINGS

40's

LESTER x'46 and GENEVENE x'46 PIFER continue to live in Winona Lake, Indiana, where Lester is the executive director of The Brethren Home Missions Council, having served in this capacity since 1965. Genevene recently retired after 17 years of teaching school. Their three children are scattered in Ohio, Illinois, and Florida. Lester writes, "We've rejoiced. . . in the work that God has given to us and continue to praise the Lord for the strong emphasis upon Bible basics, soul winning, and church planting that we received at Bryan. . . ."

WARD x'44 and Agnes (Fay-former faculty) TRESSLER are located in Kokomo, Indiana. Ward is pastor of the Grace Brethren Church and Agnes has been doing substitute teaching. Their daughter Rachel has two children; Lois, the youngest, was married last October; and Deborah plans to be married in August.

MILDRED BALDWIN x'46 is a resident at the Zion Nursing Home in Zion, Illinois, where she has many opportunities to minister encouragement and personal witness for Jesus Christ.

WANDA BURCHAM '49 expects to take furlough from India at the end of April to reside in New Castle, Pennsylvania. She points out that most of their missionaries are near retirement age because very few new missionaries are permitted into India. Future evangelizing will rest more upon Indian Christian young people to reach India's 600 million people.

MORRIS '50 and Doris MORGAN continue to count their blessings including the family celebration of their 40th wedding anniversary on June 28, 1980. They attended the Bryan dinner in Washington, D.C. in November. Morris has been conducting a Bible study class on alternate Tuesdays in their apartment complex with an average of 25 to 30 attending. He also recounts God's grace through 13 operations and one more in prospect. Doris says, "Isn't the Lord wonderful!" She has been sustained through 9 years of treatment for cancer, but treatments are discontinued now because of other complications.

GLENN '52 and Marjorie CRUMLEY plan to come on furlough in mid-August from Zaire where they serve under Berean Missions. Their youngest daughter, Cynthia, will graduate from Rift Valley Acadmey in Kenya in July. Among the problems of life in Zaire are such as the recent change in currency when missionaries, churches, and pastors lost thousands of dollars; nearly $2,000 worth of gasoline was stolen little by little while the Crumleys were away in Kenya; prices continue to rise with inflation registering about 300%. Add to that hepatitis and a rabies-infected dog which required them to pay for rabies vaccine for 22 people—but in all these distresses, they trust God.

DAVID '52 and MARY (GROVER) '53 NAFF arrived in New York on February 13 from Monrovia, Liberia, where they serve at Radio Station ELWA. David visited the Eye Clinic in Wheaton in March because of complications in his left eye. If conditions permit, they plan to travel to Florida, to Arkansas, and then back east. They are making their furlough headquarters at Mentor, Ohio.

GEORGE '55 and Norma HABERER plan to return to Papua, New Guinea in June. They will go to an interior town of Kerowagi, 80 miles from Goroka, where they ministered previously. They plan for a youth ministry among English-speaking youth residing in dormitories in the town high school and for children attending the elementary school. They hope to take sports equipment, games, puzzles, and books for this ministry.

ERNEST '52 and LOIS (CARTWRIGHT) x'54 LEE report progress in Scripture translation in the Pijin language in the Solomon Islands. A play was prepared about the birth of Christ for one of the churches. The Solomon Islands Broadcasting Corporation heard about the play and requested that it be recorded for the nation. A similar program was prepared for Easter upon request.

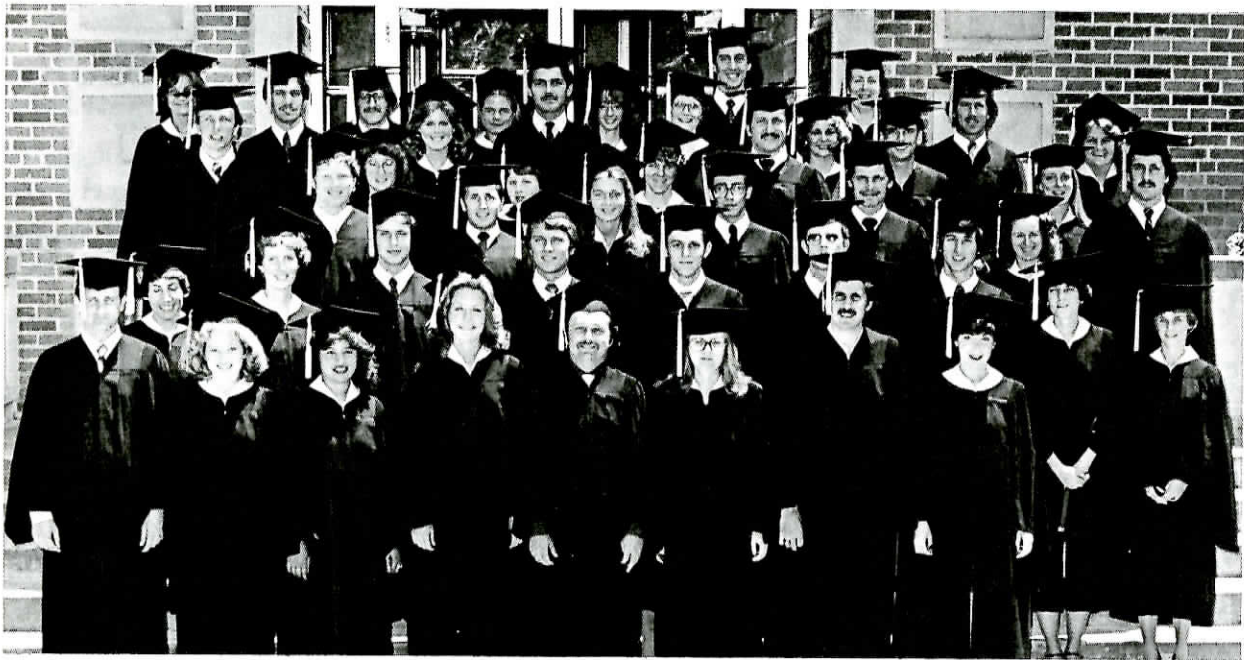

MILLIE MOSBY x'53 continues to serve under Sudan Interior Mission from her home location in Chicago by carrying on a "friendship evangelism" among African students in the Chicago area. She is also teaching an adult singles class at her home church, Midwest Bible Church.

EVERETT BOYCE '56 has been asked to represent International Students and cooperate with Open Doors to lead a tour group to China next September. His current responsibility is to follow up on a mission survey for ISI as an assistant for planning and organization to work with President Hal Guffey. Both Everett and FAITH '60 have Sunday School classes in a church in Colorado Springs where the pastor is a former missionary from Taiwan.

JOSEPH '56 and GEORGIA (LEDBETTER) '56 ASCHENBACH celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on March 19, recalling their spring vacation wedding during their senior year at Bryan. Joe is on a one-year sabbatical from the pastorate, having already made a trip to the Republic of China and Japan last October with a group from the Philadelphia chapter of the National

Railway Historical Society. Georgia works three or four days a week in a picture gallery along with learning some crafts such as sewing and pottery-making. Of their five children, only James, the youngest, is still at home as a sophomore in high school.

JACK '58 and Norma CANADY had the special privilege of helping their son Paul and his wife and two children get settled in a new Village Mission appointment in The Vly, near Stone Ridge, New York. A church built in 1893 had been closed for 30 years, but some local ladies have been working and praying for its reopening and now are assisted by this second generation missionary.

MARVIN GERBER x'59 is principal of the Springmore School in Carbondale, Illinois. He and his wife, Ilse, and their two sons, Mark, 8, and Adam, 5, recently visited the Bryan campus.

60's

WAYNE '60 and Gay FUNDERBERG with their daughter, Hope, 4, live in Quinnesec, Michigan. Wayne has spent the last two summers at Northern Michigan University and hopes to take one more class and write his paper for his Specialist degree. They have a Good News Club in their home for neighborhood children. Gay is substitute teaching at the Kingsford High School in the home economics department.

STANLEY FREDERICK '65 is pastor of the Beulah Baptist Church in Winter Garden, Florida.

NAOMI GLOCK x'61 is on furlough from her work in Surinam and is making her headquarters at the Wycliffe Bible Translators office in Dallas, Texas.

DAVID '65 and ANN (KELLY) '65 LIND rejoice in the development of the MK's under their care at Fortaleza Academy in Brazil. Seven have formed a Gospel team to minister in local churches; others help with Bible stories for children. Also they are glad for three motherless children from England, whose father works on an off-shore oil rig. The children have been saved and pray for their father. Inflation in Brazil puts gasoline at $3.17 a gallon. The Linds request prayer for rain in northeast Brazil where the situation is critical in food shortages for the third year. In their area a four-gallon can of water costs 40¢. "Let your water faucet be a prayer reminder."

BARRY '69 and JEAN (SMITH) '63 WALCOTT have moved to Houston, Texas, where Barry teaches 14 students in the third grade of a Title I school in inner-city Houston. Barry began his work last August, but Jean and their daughter, Alissa, stayed in Kalamazoo until December to complete the sale of their house, and the family was reunited on December 31. Alissa is in the 6th grade this year.

DON CRANE '66 has been appointed Associate Director of Central Europe for Greater Europe Mission. He and BEA (PENDLETON) '66 with their three children have been living in Portugal, where Don assisted in establishing the Bible Institute. The Cranes anticipate a move, probably to Paris, France, and the language and culture adjustments that will be involved.

THEODORE C. MERCER, JR. '69, received the degree of master of business administration from the University of Chicago at the winter convocation on March 20.

70's

TOM '70 and ANN (BURKETT) '69 KEEFER are engaged in traveling to present the work of their mission, Bible Christian Union, in preparation for their departure to Germany by the end of August as the Lord provides.

Des and LYNNE (STEVENS) '71 HARPER anticipate the visit of the LOGOS in China at Tientsin, the port for Beijing (Peking), on April 23 to May 7; Shanghai, May 10-26; and Amoy, May 28 to June 8. This will be a first visit to China for the LOGOS. The five previous weeks were spent in the Philippines.

PAUL '72 and ANNETTE (HENDERSON) '73 HAYWARD with their two children have arrived in Swaziland, Africa, to teach at the Florence Christian Academy in Nhlanguano. Paul is vice principal of the high school and is teaching math and English. He has charge of chapel service on Wednesday and has devotions each morning in his classroom. Annette plans for correspondence Bible study beside teaching Anne in first grade by correspondence and caring for David, who is nearing two.

DAVID BOUCHARD '72 is a sergeant on the Chattanooga Police force. He received the master of science degree in criminal justice from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga in 1979.

CRAIG KIRKPATRICK '73 and his wife, Beccy, live in Windom, Minnesota, where Craig is pastor of the Evangelical Free Church. He received the Th.M. from Dallas Theological Seminary in 1979. His article entitled "Where Will You Be When Your Grave Is Empty?" was a feature in the Spring 1981 issue of DIRECTION, the quarterly publication of Oak Hill Fellowship.

Richard and LOIS (AURINGER) '72 FISHER have moved from Canada to Poland, Ohio, where Richard is pastor of Poland Village Baptist Church, the home church of JAMES '57 and JUDY (KING) '57 BARTH and their family, which includes two present students, Anna and Irving.

VICKI (WRIGHT) '74 CORBETT, an accountant at Provident Life and Accident Insurance Company, in Chattanooga, Tennessee, has successfully completed the examination program for the Certificate in Management Accounting. Vicki graduated from Bryan with an elementary education major and from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga with an accounting major. She began work at Provident in 1979.

Four Bryan alumni received the Master of Arts degree from Tennessee Technological University in Cookeville, Tennessee, on August 23, 1980—CATHY UNDERWOOD SMITH '74 and PAUL DAVID COMBS '77 in education administration, supervision, and curriculum; CAROL LOUISE CILIBERTO '76 in elementary education; and on December 6—DAVID ALFRED GIESEL '74, secondary education and foundations.
